

Redistricting

City of Anaheim

Join Us

The results of the 2020 Census — and the latest picture of Anaheim's community — are almost here.

So we're joining with our community to look at updating Anaheim's City Council districts.

We're holding redistricting meetings across our community and online. You can share your thoughts and your own proposed district maps.

Join us for an upcoming meeting to learn more, to share your thoughts and to ask questions.

Head over to AnaheimRedistricting.org to find details on how the process works, to sign up for updates, to learn how to get involved and more!
